CROSS EXPLORATIONS

Today, the Sunday School students study the account “Jesus Rejected at Nazareth and Jesus sends out His Disciples”. Jesus was rejected by the people of his hometown. They did not want his mercy and healing nor did they want salvation through him. That’s sad. Jesus sent out his disciples to preach the good news and told them that if they are rejected like he had been, they are to “shake the dust off their feet” and move on to another place. God, give us the wisdom and the strength not to give in to the temptation to reject Jesus or his disciples who tell us the good news about him, but to receive him and his gifts with thanksgiving as often as we can.

“LIFE QUOTES” FROM LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

“All law is enacted morality. Every criminal law says that a certain thing is right, and another wrong. Every law is thus a piece of legislated morality. Moreover, all morality represents a religion, as every system of law is an establishment of religion. Thus, there can be a separation of church and state, but there cannot be a separation of religion and the state because every system of law is a religion and a morality action.” ~ R. J. Rushdoony, philosopher, historian, and theologian ~ A "Life Quote" from Lutherans For Life www.lutheransforlife.org.
