CROSS EXPLORATIONS

Today, the Sunday School students study the account “Jesus explains why he says: ‘I am the Bread of Life’”. Jesus said he has come from heaven to do his Father’s will, namely that everyone who believes in Christ will have everlasting life and will be raised on the last day. Jesus says he is this bread from heaven that whoever eats of this bread will never hunger; and this bread is his flesh. God grant us wisdom and strength to accept this good news which is given to us every Sunday under the bread and the wine of Holy Communion.

“LIFE QUOTES” FROM LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

“Sadly, our culture has reverted to the pagan practices of old. Nevertheless, through the Messiah’s unfailing love, God turns our hearts to himself as our Heavenly Father. To preserve this Gospel heritage in future generations, God turns the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers. May God in Christ forgive us our failings and preserve us in his saving truth unto life everlasting.” ~ Ryan C. McPherson, Bethany Lutheran College, Mankato, Minnesota ~ A "Life Quote" from Lutherans For Life www.lutheransforlife.org.
